BASSEY NAMED PRESEASON SECOND-TEAM ALL-AMERICAN BY LINDY'S SPORTS MAGAZINE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — It's been a while since Charles Bassey stepped on the court for a game, but national pundits haven't forgotten what he can do.

WKU Hilltopper Basketball's junior center has been named a Preseason Second-Team All-American by Lindy's Sports Magazine.

Bassey – a 6-foot-11, 235-pound native of Lagos, Nigeria – was named a First-Team Preseason All-American as a sophomore in 2019-20 by both Lindy's and Street & Smith's Basketball Yearbook.

He averaged 15.3 points, 9.2 rebounds, 1.3 assists and 1.2 blocks in 10 games last season before suffering a tibial plateau fracture in his left leg against Arkansas on Dec. 7.

Bassey had successful season-ending surgery in Houston on Dec. 10, began rehab immediately and was cleared to resume full contact activities earlier this month.

Last season, Bassey was also selected to the preseason watch lists for the Naismith Trophy, the John R. Wooden Award and the Oscar Robertson Trophy, the most prestigious National Player of the Year honors in the country.

Lindy's ranks Bassey No. 11 on its list of the best college basketball players in America. His teammate, WKU senior guard Taveion Hollingsworth, ranks No. 148 nationally.

As a freshman, Bassey averaged 14.6 points, 10 rebounds, and 2.4 blocks while shooting 62.7 percent from the field.

He was named a Freshman All-American and was 1 of 5 national finalists – including the only freshman – for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center of the Year Award.

Bassey became the second player in Conference USA history to win both C-USA Freshman of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year in the same season, and he was also named to the All-C-USA First Team, All-Freshman Team and All-Defensive Team.

Updated 2020-21 C-USA schedule is attached.

C-USA ANNOUNCES HILLTOPPER BASKETBALL'S UPDATED 2020-21 LEAGUE SCHEDULE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball's previously announced 2020-21 Conference USA schedule has been adjusted to a new health and safety model, as approved by the league's Board of Directors.

This season, the league will move to a new 18-game regular season format for conference play that focuses on the health and safety of student-athletes. In this format, schools will play two games per visit at four select C-USA schools and host four select teams for a two-game series, while playing a rival opponent one time each home and away.

Moving to this schedule format will significantly reduce the amount of travel during conference play, with the aim of minimizing the risks associated with COVID-19. Additionally, the final week of the regular season (March 4 and 6) may be utilized to reschedule any postponed games.

The Hilltoppers will now open the conference slate with two games at Charlotte on Dec. 31 and Jan. 2, followed by home games against Louisiana Tech on Jan. 7 and 9.

WKU will split a series with travel partner Marshall, first hosting the Thundering Herd on Jan. 13 before a return game to Huntington, W.Va. on Jan. 16.

That's followed by two games at Middle Tennessee (Jan. 21 and 23), home games against Old Dominion (Jan. 28 and 30), a road trip to Florida Atlantic (Feb. 4 and 6), and two contests in Diddle Arena against Rice (Feb. 11 and 13).

WKU concludes the regular season with two games at defending league champion North Texas on Feb. 18 and 20, before returning home for the final series against FIU on Feb. 26 and 27.

The week of March 4 and 6 is being held for make-up games postponed by COVID-19, while the Conference USA Championships will take place March 10-13 in Frisco, Texas. The top 12 regular-season finishers will qualify for the conference tournament.

Game times and TV information will be announced at a later date. The non-conference portion of WKU's 2020-21 schedule is still being finalized.

The Hilltoppers are 8-4 against the Power Five over the last three seasons and have won 67 total games over that span, the most in Conference USA. WKU ranks third in NCAA history in regular-season league titles (42), seventh in 20-win seasons (46), eighth in all-time winning percentage (.660) and 15th in all-time wins (1,815).

BASSEY, WILLIAMS LEAD WKU TO 75-69 WIN OVER MEMPHIS, CROSSOVER CLASSIC TITLE GAME

SIoux FALLS, S.D. — Last Friday morning, WKU Hilltopper Basketball wasn't even in the Bad Boy Mowers Crossover Classic field.

One week later, the Hilltoppers will play for the championship.

WKU got massive outings from the post duo of junior center Charles Bassey and redshirt senior forward Carson Williams, defeating Memphis 75-69 in the semifinals at the Sanford Pentagon.

"I thought after the first five, six minutes, I thought they came out and kind of punched us in the mouth a little bit with their pressure and intensity," WKU head coach Rick Stansbury said. "We let it faze us a little bit when they got up seven or eight. But then we settled down. We were better. I know this in the second half, we only had four turnovers in the second half. The thing we did again in the second half, we got the ball in that paint. These two guys beside me (Bassey and Williams) went to work."

The Hilltoppers (2-0) will face West Virginia or VCU in the championship game at 12:30 p.m. CT Friday on ESPN.

Bassey shined on the national stage in his second game since returning from a season-ending leg injury, posting 21 points, 14 rebounds and a career-high seven blocks.

"Yesterday was my first game back since last year, December 7," Bassey said. "It was pretty good just getting back to my old self and just playing to my capability. I felt good playing with my teammates, they gave me the ball in the second half. We were on a roll. Memphis is a pretty good team, but we're a pretty good team, too. We were ready and we got the win. It was tough, but we got the win."

Williams contributed 14 points and nine rebounds, while senior guard Taveion Hollingsworth added 18 points.

WKU outrebounded Memphis 44-32 and pulled down 11 offensive rebounds, including four apiece from Bassey and Williams.

"One big thing for me this game was hitting offensive boards hard," Williams said. "I tried to take the mismatches that Coach said I had, use my physicality to exploit that and hit the glass hard. The same thing on the offensive end there in the second half."

The Hilltoppers went scoreless for more than seven minutes in the first half, as the Tigers (1-1) rattled off a 13-0 run.

WKU snapped out of the slump with three straight 3s and an eventual 11-0 burst to get back in front at 19-18 on a basket by Hollingsworth with 7:57 left.

WKU built a 34-30 lead with 1:58 left on back-to-back 3s by Williams and sophomore guard Jordan Rawls, but Memphis scored the final five points of the frame for a 35-34 lead.

The Tops opened the second half with a 14-4 run, pulling in front 48-39 with 13:31 to play.

Memphis came as close as one with 5:59 to go, but WKU got six straight points from Bassey and Williams to get separation.

The Tops lived up to their calling card of free-throw success, making 19 of 24 for the game and 15 of 20 in the second half to keep the Tigers at bay.

Memphis cut WKU's lead to 72-69 with five seconds left, but the Hilltoppers scored the game's last four points at the line.

Redshirt senior guard Kenny Cooper made two of those, giving him eight points, five rebound and four assists.

Landers Nolley II led Memphis with 25 points and six made 3-pointers.

"We take all games one at a time," Stansbury said. "They all count one win, one loss. You don't get two wins with last night or tonight, they're all one win or one loss. I do think there's something more special with these wins because the early season wins, they're against great competition and it's on a national stage against two of the better teams in the country. When you add those things up, we're still 2-0, but it's a pretty special 2-0 considering the two teams we played."

HILLTOPPERS TO PLAY THREE GAMES IN LOUISVILLE BUBBLE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball's non-conference schedule will include three games in a bubble setting hosted by the University of Louisville, including a Dec. 1 matchup with the Cardinals and two other games against 2020 conference champions.

The Hilltoppers will face Little Rock on Nov. 28, Louisville on Dec. 1 and Prairie View A&M on Dec. 3 for its three games at the KFC Yum! Center.

Louisville is hosting the 2020 Wade Houston Tipoff Classic during this window, but WKU's games will not officially be a part of the multi-team event.

The Hilltoppers will open play in the bubble against their old Sun Belt Conference foe Little Rock. WKU holds a 35-13 all-time edge in the series, although the programs have not met since 2014. The Tops are 2-0 on a neutral court against the Trojans.

Little Rock finished 21-10 last season and won the Sun Belt regular season title.

WKU's game against Louisville on Dec. 1 will be a true road game and will count toward the teams' ongoing four-year series. The Cardinals are slated to return to E.A. Diddle Arena in the 2021-22 season before hosting WKU for another game at the Yum! Center in 2022-23.

Louisville leads the all-time series 41-39, including a 71-54 victory last season in Nashville that propelled the Cardinals to a No. 1 national ranking. They finished 24-7 a year ago before the COVID-19 pandemic hit.

WKU has faced Prairie View A&M just once before, an 85-72 win in 1988. The Panthers went 19-13 last season and won the SWAC regular season championship.

There will be two practice courts available for teams within the bubble, including the practice court in the KFC Yum! Center and a full court that will be installed during the event in the Grand Ballroom of the Galt House Hotel. Teams may also use the court in the controlled Planet Fitness Kueber Center, UofL's campus practice facility, during the event. A weight room will also be temporarily set up in the Galt House for the teams.

The hotel is connected by an elevated walkway directly into the arena. With the exception of a possible bus trip for practice in the Planet Fitness Kueber Center, teams will not have to leave the dual facilities of the Galt House Hotel or KFC Yum! Center during their stay in Louisville. Teams will eat their meals in the Galt House and all teams will be staying in the East side of the Galt House, which features all suite rooms. Testing protocols will be in place for all participating teams and health protocols established by the ACC will be in place.

Game times and television assignments for the games will be determined later.

The rest of WKU's nine-game non-conference schedule will be announced soon.

TOPS PICKED AS C-USA FAVORITE; HOLLINGSWORTH, BASSEY NAMED TO PRESEASON TEAM

DALLAS — WKU Hilltopper Basketball has been chosen for the third straight season by the Conference USA coaches to win the league.

The Hilltoppers were selected as the C-USA favorite in the annual preseason poll released Thursday, while senior guard Taveion Hollingsworth and junior center Charles Bassey were named to the Preseason All-Conference Team.

WKU received 11 first-place votes, while defending regular season champion North Texas received the other three. The Hilltoppers finished second in the league in 2019-20 before the season was halted by the COVID-19 pandemic.

This is the third straight year the Hilltoppers have had multiple preseason all-conference selections. It's the third straight season that Hollingsworth has been named to the preseason team, and the second straight year for Bassey.

The 6-foot-2 senior Hollingsworth was named to the All-C-USA First Team last year as a junior after averaging 16.6 points, 4.2 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 1.7 steals. He also shot 47.1 percent from the field and 84.3 percent from the charity stripe. The Lexington, Ky., native has started 102 straight games to start his career, the most of any active player in the country.

Hollingsworth enters this season ranked 18th on WKU's career scoring list with 1,494 career points. He's also eighth in career minutes played, sixth in career free-throw percentage and 10th in career made field goals.

The 6-11 junior Bassey averaged 15.3 points, 9.2 rebounds, 1.6 blocks and 1.3 assists in 10 games last year before his season was cut short by a leg injury. Prior to that, he was named a Preseason First-Team All-American by Lindy's Magazine and Street & Smith's, as well as a preseason watch list honoree for the Naismith Trophy, John R. Wooden Award and Robertson Trophy.

The Lagos, Nigeria, native was named a Preseason Second-Team All-American this year by Lindy's. Bassey will begin the 2020-21 season as the nation's active leader in career rebounding average at 9.8 blocks per game. The 2019 C-USA Freshman and Defensive Player of the Year also ranks ninth on WKU's career blocks list with 97.

Updated Conference USA schedule is attached.

C-USA ANNOUNCES UPDATED MEN'S BASKETBALL SCHEDULE WITH FRIDAY-SATURDAY GAMES

DALLAS – The Conference USA Board of Directors approved an updated format for its men's and women's basketball scheduling that will move conference competition to Friday and Saturday, the league announced Thursday.

As previously released, C-USA will transition to an 18-game regular season conference schedule for the 2020-21 season that keeps student-athlete health and safety at the forefront. Schools will play two games per visit at four select C-USA campuses, and will host four teams for a two-game series. Teams will also have a home-and-home opportunity with a designated rival opponent.

The new model announced Thursday will have teams play back-to-back games on Friday and Saturday, instead of Thursday and Saturday as originally decided. C-USA also implemented a requirement of at least 21 hours in between tipoffs to provide appropriate rest periods.

In addition to reducing the amount of travel, moving to this Friday-Saturday format will allow teams to play and efficiently complete their testing protocol each week.

Regular season conference play for both men's and women's basketball will begin on January 1 and the final week of the regular season may be utilized to reschedule any postponed games.

WKU also announced other date changes Thursday in league play related to TV selections to be announced at a later date.

The Hilltoppers' home game against travel partner Marshall will be played on Thursday, Jan. 14, while the return game in Huntington will take place Sunday, Jan. 17.

Additionally, WKU's road series at rival Middle Tennessee has been pushed back a day to Saturday, Jan. 23 and Sunday, Jan. 24.

BASSEY NAMED TO WATCH LIST FOR 2021 KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR AWARD

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball junior center Charles Bassey once again finds himself as one of 20 national watch list members for the 2021 Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center of the Year Award, as announced Friday by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Named after Class of 1995 Hall of Famer and three-time NCAA Champion Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, the annual honor in its seventh year recognizes the top centers in men's college basketball. A national committee comprising top college basketball personnel determined the watch list of 20 candidates.

Bassey was named to the Kareem Award watch list last season before his sophomore campaign was cut short after just 10 games by a season-ending leg injury. He was a top-five finalist for the 2019 Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award, and one of four freshmen to be named a finalist in the award's existence.

Bassey – a 6-foot-11, 235-pound native of Lagos, Nigeria – has been named a Preseason Second-Team All-American by Lindy's Sports Magazine. He'll enter this season as the nation's active leader in career rebounding average (9.8 boards per game).

Last season, he averaged 15.3 points, 9.2 rebounds, 1.3 assists and 1.2 blocks in 10 games last season before suffering a tibial plateau fracture in his left leg against Arkansas on Dec. 7.

Bassey had successful season-ending surgery in Houston on Dec. 10, began rehab immediately and was cleared to resume full contact activities in September.

Last season, Bassey was also selected to the preseason watch lists for the Naismith Trophy, the John R. Wooden Award and the Oscar Robertson Trophy, the most prestigious National Player of the Year honors in the country.

As a freshman, Bassey averaged 14.6 points, 10 rebounds, and 2.4 blocks while shooting 62.7 percent from the field. He was named a Freshman All-American in addition to being a Kareem Award top-five finalist.

Bassey became the second player in Conference USA history to win both C-USA Freshman of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year in the same season in 2019, and he was also named to the All-C-USA First Team, All-Freshman Team and All-Defensive Team.

College basketball fans are encouraged to participate in Fan Voting presented by Dell Technologies in each of the three rounds. Fans can vote for Bassey beginning today at the following link: <http://goto.ps/CBKareem2020>

In late January, the watch list of 20 players for the 2021 Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center of the Year Award will be narrowed down to just 10. In late February, five finalists will be presented to Mr. Abdul-Jabbar and the Hall of Fame's selection committee.

The winner of the 2021 Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award will be presented on Friday, April 9, along with the other four members of the Men's Starting Five. Additional awards being presented include the Bob Cousy Point Guard Award, the Jerry West Shooting Guard Award, the Julius Erving Small Forward Award and the Karl Malone Power Forward Award, in addition to the Women's Starting Five.

HILLTOPPERS SIGN TOP-20 GUARD ZION HARMON IN 2021 CLASS

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball head coach Rick Stansbury announced Wednesday the signing of Zion Harmon (5-11, Guard) in the 2021 class.

"It's very obvious that Zion's basketball credentials and accomplishments speak for themselves," Stansbury said. "The thing that excites me the most about him is the work ethic and character that he has, and it starts at home with his father, Mike, who's kept him grounded and instilled that work ethic. There aren't many kids who've worked harder. I've seen it since his eighth-grade year at Bowling Green under Coach Sherrill when he helped lead them to a state championship. He plays for a great coach in Coach Birdsong now and one of the better programs in the state at Marshall County. We're excited to have him come back to Bowling Green and join our family."

Harmon, one of the top contenders for Kentucky's 2021 Mr. Basketball Award and an All-American candidate, averaged 25.4 points, 5.2 assists, 3.3 rebounds and 1.4 steals as a junior at Marshall County High School in 2019-20.

The consensus four-star recruit is ranked as the 20th-best prospect in the country and No. 4 at his position by ESPN.

Harmon ranked sixth in the state of Kentucky in scoring as a junior, as well as ninth in 3-pointers made (95) and free-throw percentage (84.5). He helped Marshall County finish 23-11 and reach the First Region Tournament championship game.

The first-team All-State selection also received the honor as a freshman at Adair County High School, where he was named 2018 MaxPreps National Freshman of the Year. He averaged 32.7 points, 7.8 assists and 3.4 rebounds for Adair County.

Before that, he won a state championship in 2017 as an eighth-grader at Bowling Green High School. Harmon averaged 16.8 points in helping the Purples to a 36-2 record, including 18 points in the title game.

Harmon has also competed for USA Basketball in recent years, winning a gold medal with the 2017 USA Men's U16 National Team in the FIBA Americas U16 Championship.

TOPS INK TEXAS STANDOUT GUARD ELIJAH HUGHEY TO NATIONAL LETTER OF INTENT

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball head coach Rick Stansbury announced Thursday the signing of Elijah Hughey (6-5, Guard) in the 2021 class.

"We're excited to have Elijah join our family," Stansbury said. "He'll be playing for one of the top programs in Texas this year under Coach Ferrin Douglas, and also he's played for one of the better AAU coaches in the state of Texas in Darius Coleman. What stands out about him is his ability to shoot and score the basketball. He brings a great work ethic and toughness to your program that's been instilled in him by his family."

Hughey has transferred to Lancaster (Texas) High School for his senior season after competing last year for West Mesquite High School. Lancaster is projected as the top team in the state entering the season.

Hughey averaged 17 points and five rebounds per game last season on his way to being a First-Team All-District 13-5A selection.

He had a breakout summer competing for the Lone Star Elite AAU program and is considered one of the top Texas guard prospects in the 2021 class.

HILLTOPPERS ANNOUNCE NINE-GAME NON-CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — After a complete overhaul of the schedule due to the COVID-19 pandemic, WKU Hilltopper Basketball announced Friday its nine-game non-conference slate, including four games in E.A. Diddle Arena in December.

The Hilltoppers will welcome Campbellsville, Rhode Island, Tennessee Tech and Mississippi Valley State to Diddle Arena in the final month of 2020 after a tough five-game stretch in two different bubble events to open the season.

WKU will open the campaign with two games on Nov. 25 and 26 in Nebraska's multi-team event, the Golden Window Classic, in Lincoln, Neb. Those opponents are still being finalized.

The Hilltoppers will then travel directly to Louisville, where they will play three games at the KFC Yum! Center. The games will take place during the Cardinals' Wade Houston Tipoff Classic, although WKU will not officially be in the event.

WKU opens play in Louisville against 2020 Sun Belt Conference champion Little Rock on Nov. 28. The Trojans, a longtime former league rival for the Tops, went 21-10 a year ago.

The Hilltoppers have two days off before taking on Louisville on Dec. 1 for a true road game that will count toward the teams' ongoing four-year series. The Cardinals are slated to return to E.A. Diddle Arena in the 2021-22 season before hosting WKU for another game at the Yum! Center in 2022-23.

Louisville leads the all-time series 41-39, including a 71-54 victory last season in Nashville that propelled the Cardinals to a No. 1 national ranking. They finished 24-7 with a NET ranking of 8 a year ago before the COVID-19 pandemic hit.

WKU closes play in Louisville against 2020 SWAC champion Prairie View A&M (19-13 last year) on Dec. 3.

The Hilltoppers begin the home portion of their non-conference schedule against Campbellsville on Dec. 10. WKU posted a 109-66 victory last year over Stansbury's alma mater.

On Dec. 13, WKU welcomes Rhode Island to Diddle Arena for the first time ever. The Hilltoppers dropped an 86-82 overtime thriller on the road to the Rams last season in their first game without injured center Charles Bassey.

Rhode Island finished 2019-20 with a 21-9 record and 57 NET ranking.

To conclude non-conference play, the Hilltoppers will host Tennessee Tech on Dec. 22 and Mississippi Valley State on Dec. 28.

Conference USA play begins Jan. 1 with the first of consecutive games at Charlotte. Teams will play Friday-Saturday in league action this year, facing the same team twice in a weekend at the same location for healthy and safety precautions.

Game times and TV broadcast info will be announced at a later date.

The WKU athletic department has worked collaboratively with campus leadership, the Governor's office and other officials to craft a safe experience for home games in Diddle Arena. At this time, WKU is moving forward with a 15% arena capacity and ensuring all seating is socially distanced. More information on changes to gameday will be announced next week.

Now that the schedule is finalized, a ticket office or HAF representative will contact each season ticket holder. Season ticket holders will not need to call the ticket/HAF offices unless they would like to credit their tickets/HAF donation to next season or donate the current payment to the Tops Together Recovery Fund. If a fan credits their tickets to next year they will have the opportunity to purchase single-game tickets for this 2020-21 season if they become available. All season ticket holders should pay attention to email updates from the ticket office this weekend with more information.

TOPS TO OPEN SEASON VS. NEVADA, LSU IN NEBRASKA'S GOLDEN WINDOW CLASSIC

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — The final pieces of WKU Basketball's non-conference schedule fell into place Tuesday with the announcement that the Hilltoppers will open the season against Nevada and LSU in Nebraska's Golden Window Classic.

WKU will begin its 102nd season against Nevada on Nov. 25 and turn around to face LSU in a Thanksgiving matchup on Nov. 26.

The games will be played without fans at Nebraska's Pinnacle Bank Arena in Lincoln, Neb. Game times and television are still pending.

Nevada finished 19-12 last season with an 89 NET ranking, while LSU tallied a 21-10 record and 28 NET a year ago.

WKU is 0-1 all-time against the Wolf Pack and 0-3 against LSU. The Tigers, a popular preseason top-25 pick, are also a familiar opponent for Stansbury, who went 18-13 against them in his 14 seasons as head coach at Mississippi State.

This is the latest on the calendar that WKU has started a season since opening on Dec. 3 in 1994-95, and the first time starting play on a neutral court since opening the 2009-10 season in the NIT Tip-Off in Baton Rouge, La.

After wrapping up play in Nebraska, the Hilltoppers head straight to Louisville for games against Little Rock (Nov. 28), the Cardinals (Dec. 1) and Prairie View A&M (Dec. 3) at the KFC Yum! Center.

WKU concludes non-conference play with four home games in E.A. Diddle Arena, highlighted by a visit from Rhode Island on Dec. 13.

WKU's first six games against Division I competition had a combined record of 125-61 last season. Four of those opponents finished in the top 90 of last year's NET rankings, while the other two both won their regular season conference titles.

All seats will be reassigned to create social distance throughout the arena. Tickets will be assigned using WKU's Hilltopper Athletic Foundation priority ranking and will be available to view in each ticketholder's account at that time.

For men's basketball, the WKU Ticket Office will be splitting the games into two season ticket plans for fans to choose from:

PLAN 1: TOPPER

$175 - 7 Games

12/10 – Campbellsville
12/22 – Tennessee Tech
1/9 – Louisiana Tech
1/14 – Marshall
1/29 – Old Dominion
2/13 – Rice
2/26 – FIU

PLAN 2: BIG RED

The WKU Ticket Office has started the initial allocation of men's basketball season tickets. WKU plans on having all tickets allocated before Dec. 4. Each customer will be contacted by the ticket office or a HAF representative to finalize their seat selection for this season. Fans who wish to opt out can go ahead and call the ticket office or HAF office to update their account.

Fans who choose to opt out of their tickets for 2020-21 can move their ticket credit to the 2021-22 season, convert the total to a tax-deductible gift to the Tops Together Recovery Fund, or request a refund.

Single-game tickets will be available to all paid season ticket holders who credited their tickets to next season or converted their payment to a gift towards the Tops Together Recovery Fund. There will be an email sent at a later date with an exclusive promo code to purchase tickets online to any game this season. Purchases will be limited to four tickets per account as only 80 tickets will be available for each game. All season ticket holders are encouraged to update their email address with the WKU Ticket Office as soon as possible. More information will be available on single-game sales at a later date.

Women's basketball season ticket allocations will be completed this week. Seats have been allocated based on HAF priority rank.

As has been the case with football, WKU Athletics is transitioning to mobile ticketing this year for basketball. Click here for more information on what to expect with mobile ticketing.

Due to regulations from Conference USA, there will be no fan seating within 25 feet of the court. This means that all Red Towel and Courtside seats will be removed.

Masks will be required for entry into the arena and must be worn at all times within the venue, including while seated, except when actively eating or drinking. Temperature checks will also be required for all fans. Individuals with a temperature of 100.4 F or higher will not be admitted.

WKU Athletics will engage in increased cleaning and sanitization in all public areas of the arena before, during and after the game.

Reserved parking locations will remain the same for this season and will be allocated based on HAF giving levels.

Additional gameday information will be released before the first Hilltopper and Lady Topper Basketball home games. Fans are encouraged to follow WKUSports.com and watch their email for the most up-to-date information.

BASSEY NAMED TO 2021 NAISMITH TROPHY PLAYER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

ATLANTA — WKU Hilltopper Basketball junior center Charles Bassey has been named one of 50 national watch list members for the 2021 Jersey Mike's Trophy Men's Player of the Year award, as announced Thursday by the Atlanta Tipoff Club.

The Naismith Trophy is given annually to the top men's college basketball player in the nation. The full watch list can be found here: <https://goto.ps/2IWgaKM>

This is the second straight year that Bassey has been named to the watch list. Last season, he became the first Hilltopper to make the list since Courtney Lee in 2007.

A list of the midseason 30-member team will be released in early February, followed by the 10 national semifinalists and four finalists on March 4 and March 16, respectively. The 2021 Jersey Mike's Naismith Trophy will be awarded during the Final Four at the Naismith Awards Brunch on April 4.

Bassey has already been named a Preseason Second-Team All-American by Lindy's Sports Magazine, as well as a member of the watch list for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center of the Year Award.

This is the second straight year Bassey has been named to the Kareem Award watch list. He was a top-five finalist for the award as a freshman.

Fan voting is ongoing for the Kareem Award, and Hilltopper fans can vote for Bassey every day at the following link: <http://goto.ps/CBKareem2020>

The 6-foot-11, 235-pound native of Lagos, Nigeria, will enter this season as the nation's active leader in career rebounding average (9.8 boards per game).

Last season, he averaged 15.3 points, 9.2 rebounds, 1.3 assists and 1.2 blocks in 10 games last season before suffering a tibial plateau fracture in his left leg against Arkansas on Dec. 7.

Bassey had successful season-ending surgery in Houston on Dec. 10, began rehab immediately and was cleared to resume full contact activities in September.

Last season, Bassey was selected to the preseason watch lists for the Naismith Trophy, the John R. Wooden Award and the Oscar Robertson Trophy, the most prestigious National Player of the Year honors in the country.

As a freshman, Bassey averaged 14.6 points, 10 rebounds, and 2.4 blocks while shooting 62.7 percent from the field. He was named a Freshman All-American in addition to being a Kareem Award top-five finalist.

Bassey became the second player in Conference USA history to win both C-USA Freshman of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year in the same season in 2019, and he was also named to the All-C-USA First Team, All-Freshman Team and All-Defensive Team.

WKU 2021 signee guard Zion Harmon was named last week to the watch list for the 2021 Jersey Mike's Naismith High School Boys Basketball Player of the Year.

WKU is one of 12 schools with a player on the watch list for both the college and high school National Player of the Year awards, along with Baylor, Duke, Florida State, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Michigan State, Stanford, Tennessee, UCLA and Villanova.

HILLTOPPERS DRAW NORTHERN IOWA IN CROSSOVER CLASSIC OPENER

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball will begin play in this week's Bad Boy Mowers Crossover Classic against Northern Iowa at 3:30 p.m. CT Wednesday.

The game will air on ESPNU from the Sanford Pentagon in Sioux Falls, S.D.

Northern Iowa went 25-6 last season, won the Missouri Valley Conference regular season title and finished with a NET ranking of 48.

WKU is 3-0 all-time against the Panthers, but the teams haven't met since 1982. Rick Stansbury has never faced UNI as a head coach, but he was on the bench as an assistant for Texas A&M when the Aggies came back from 12 down with 35 seconds to go to beat the Panthers in the 2016 NCAA Tournament.

After Northern Iowa, WKU will face either Memphis (21-10, 59 NET ranking in 2019-20) or Saint Mary's (26-8, 31 NET) in its second game at 11 a.m. or 4 p.m.

West Virginia, South Dakota State, Utah State and Wichita State round out the other side of the bracket.

WKU's first five known opponents for this season went a combined 110-45 last season. All of WKU's first seven opponents will have won at least 19 games a year ago. At least four of them will have finished in the top 60 in the NET last year, while at least two others won their regular season league title.

The Sanford Pentagon will have a 25% capacity next week, and tickets can be purchased at the following link: <https://goto.ps/3pPDX03>

TOPS TO OPEN UPDATED SLATE IN CROSSOVER CLASSIC; ADDITIONAL CHANGES ANNOUNCED

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball will now open the season with three games next week in the Bad Boy Mowers Crossover Classic in South Dakota.

The Hilltoppers will play three straight days Nov. 25-27 at the Sanford Pentagon in Sioux Falls, S.D.

WKU is joined in the field by Northern Iowa, Memphis, Saint Mary's, West Virginia, South Dakota State, Utah State and Wichita State. Times and opponents are still being finalized.

All games of the tournament will air on ESPN, ESPN2, or ESPNU.

"We're very excited to be a part of the Bad Boy Mowers Crossover Classic," WKU head coach Rick Stansbury said. "Lea Miller always runs a great event, and even through the challenging times we're all dealing with, she's managed to put together a great field. This is a tremendous tournament with great competition, and we look forward to the challenging opportunities on a national stage to open our season."

The Sanford Pentagon will have a 25% capacity next week, and tickets can be purchased at the following link: <https://goto.ps/3pPDX03>

WKU will no longer be competing in Nebraska's Golden Window Classic next week due to changes in contracted opponents for the event.

The change in opening events will also create two additional changes to the Hilltoppers' schedule.

WKU's game against Little Rock in the Wade Houston Tipoff Classic at Louisville will be moved from Nov. 28 to Dec. 4 at 6 p.m. CT. The Hilltoppers' first game in Louisville will now be against the Cardinals on Dec. 1, followed by Prairie View A&M on Dec. 3.

If and when tickets become available for the Little Rock and Prairie View A&M games in Louisville this week, WKU will share that information as soon as it's available.

Additionally, because of an added third game in South Dakota, WKU will not be hosting Campbellsville on Dec. 10 in E.A. Diddle Arena.

Both season ticket pages for Hilltopper Basketball will now include six games apiece.

STANSBURY ANNOUNCES SIGNING OF NATION'S TOP JUCO PLAYER JAMARION SHARP

Sharp, a Hopkinsville, Ky., native, is entering his sophomore season at John Logan College in Carterville, Ill. He's ranked a four-star recruit and the top junior-college player in the nation by 247Sports.

"We're excited for Jamarion to be a part of our family," WKU head coach Rick Stansbury said. "We offered Jamarion four years ago when he was a high school junior at Hopkinsville and wasn't playing. We watched Coach Tim Haworth work him out at halftime, and we offered him that night. It's very obvious his upside is unlimited. He's a great young man with a terrific mother. He's had the opportunity to be coached by some terrific high school coaches in Coach Haworth for three years and Larry Miller for one year, and then he's had the chance to play for one of the top JUCO programs in the country at John Logan. We're thrilled to have him and his family join our program."

Sharp averaged 5.5 points, five rebounds and 3.7 blocks per game as a freshman at Logan. He shot 64.1% from the field, appearing in 33 games with 13 starts.

The center helped Logan finish undefeated in conference play for the first time in school history and tally a 28-5 overall record. He was named to the All-Great Rivers Athletic Conference Team.

Before arriving at Logan, Sharp averaged 7.6 points and 7.9 rebounds as a senior at Hopkinsville High School. He was named to the All-Eighth District Team and to the Kentucky All-Stars.

HILLTOPPERS TAKE DOWN NORTHERN IOWA 93-87 IN CROSSOVER CLASSIC OPENER

SIoux FALLS, S.D. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball withstood a barrage of hot 3-point shooting from Northern Iowa, opening the season with a 93-87 victory over Northern Iowa in the first round of the Bad Boy Mowers Crossover Classic.

Northern Iowa made 20 of 39 3-pointers, including 12 in the second half, but the Hilltoppers outscored the Panthers 44-12 in the paint and got a massive 42 points off the bench.

"We had an opportunity right off the bat to play one of the better teams in the country, Northern Iowa," WKU head coach Rick Stansbury said. "Everybody that understands basketball across the country, you know how good they are. They did what they do best today. I'm not sure they'll lose another game rest of the season when they make 20 3-pointers... Our guys found ways, we separated the games different times when they made runs at us."

WKU (1-0) advances to face Memphis at 11 a.m. CT Thursday in the semifinals on ESPN.

"Well, it's very obvious they're one of the better basketball teams in the country," Stansbury said. "It'll be a totally different kind of team. Talent wise, they're as talented as most teams in America. Quick, athletic, going to be great off the bounce."

Senior guard Taveion Hollingsworth had 26 points to lead the Hilltoppers, including 10 of 13 makes from the free-throw line.

Freshman guard Dayvion McKnight made play after play in his college debut, contributing 21 points, four rebounds, three assists and three steals off the bench.

"I felt great coming into the game," McKnight said. "All the veterans they took me in, so I felt great. How I feel now? We've got a good team, that's how I feel now."

"He's a point guard," Hollingsworth said of McKnight. "He can come out there and facilitate things. The game's all in his hands and he handled that pretty well. We all trusted him and we believe in him. He did what he did."

Redshirt junior guard Luke Frampton scored 14 points and made 3 of 4 shots from 3-point range, and junior center Charles Bassey had 11 points and eight rebounds in his return from a season-ending tibial plateau fracture last year.

Northern Iowa (0-1) got 28 points apiece from both Noah Carter and AJ Green, with Carter making a school-record 9 of 13 3s. Despite that, the Panthers led the game for just under nine minutes.

The Hilltoppers got off to a slow start, but the bench gave a spark with a 10-0 run from the reserves. Junior forward Kevin Osawe's putback made it 14-9 with 11:23 left in the half.

Northern Iowa led 26-22 with 5:29 left in the frame, but WKU rattled off a 14-0 spurt. The exclamation mark was a steal and dunk by Bassey to make it 36-26 with 1:33 remaining.

The Panthers quickly erased WKU's nine-point halftime lead with a flurry of 3s, but the Tops never relinquished the lead.

They got some much-needed cushion with an 8-0 run midway through the second half, including six straight points from Frampton.

WKU made 24 of 28 free throws in the second half to help ice the win.

TOPS FALL TO NO. 15 WEST VIRGINIA IN CROSSOVER CLASSIC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

SIoux FALLS, S.D. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball led 15th-ranked West Virginia by 10 in the second half Friday, but couldn't hold off a game-changing Mountaineer run in a 70-64 loss in the championship game of the Bad Boy Mowers Crossover Classic.

WKU (2-1) went up 48-38 with 15:40 left on a fast-break dunk by junior center Charles Bassey and still led by 10 after a three-point play by Bassey a minute later, but West Virginia responded with a 26-7 run to go from down 10 to up nine in about 10 minutes.

Bassey and senior guard Taveion Hollingsworth both briefly left the game during that stretch with minor injuries, which disrupted the rhythm that had put WKU on a 9-0 run early in the second half.

"They present so many problems through 40 minutes of the game," WKU head coach Rick Stansbury said. "Through 40 minutes they were better. I know we got the loss, but I couldn't be more proud of how our guys battled. We didn't play perfect. We had a segment there of six straight possessions where there were four bad out of six. It kind of allowed them to spurt back in it. But it had nothing to do with our effort and how our guys fought. There's no moral victories, but I couldn't be prouder of the efforts.

"Obviously there's things we still have to get better at. I thought when Tay went down with a hurt thumb, I thought that kind of changed the tempo of the game a little bit at that point. Again, you've got to find ways to play through that. You can't let it affect you emotionally, you can't let it affect what things you do. We didn't get the win, but I'm awfully proud of the way these guys fought in these three games. This wasn't no training trip we went on. We got thrown into the fire with these three teams. Like I said, I'm proud of our effort."

The loss came after WKU defeated Northern Iowa and Memphis – ranked 78th and 38th in the latest Ken Pomeroy Ratings, respectively – in the first two rounds on consecutive days.

"We've got a lot of experience this year, so that helps us a lot," senior guard Josh Anderson said. "Just these three games, coming in and not having an exhibition game or anything like that, we played tough competition so that was big for us. I think we learned a lot just from those first two games definitely and this last game for sure."

The Hilltoppers led 36-33 at halftime after shooting 51.7% in the first half. They got that done with Bassey limited to three minutes by foul trouble, largely leaning on redshirt senior forward Carson Williams' eight points and four rebounds before the break.

WKU raced out of halftime to a 10-point advantage, but West Virginia (3-0) quickly chipped away and then kept pouring it on. The Mountaineers' lead surged to 64-55 with 3:59 left on a 3-pointer by Sean McNeil.

WKU didn't quit, however, and climbed back within four at 66-62 on a tip putback by Bassey.

West Virginia made four free throws in the final 43 seconds to hold on.

Bassey led WKU with 15 points, eight rebounds and two blocks in just 18 minutes. He was named to the All-Tournament Team.

Hollingsworth added 13 points, while Williams and Anderson each chipped in 10.

Tournament MVP Derek Culver paced West Virginia with 15 points.

The Hilltoppers will stay on the road and head into their next bubble event, which includes three games in Louisville's Wade Houston Tipoff Classic.

WKU will first face the host Cardinals at 5 p.m. CT Tuesday at the KFC Yum! Center. The game will air on ACC Network.

"We know, which we already knew, how good we can be this year," Williams said. "Obviously we are disappointed with the outcome of the game today, but the fight we put up against them and the other teams we've played throughout this tournament just shows what we have the opportunity to do this year."

- WKU is 58-62 all-time against the current ACC membership. The Hilltoppers' last win over an ACC foe was against Boston College in the 2018 NIT. Rick Stansbury is 5-9 in his career against ACC opponents.
- In the first three games of the season, WKU has made 52 of 63 free throws (82.5%), while its opponents have made just 30 of 41 from the stripe. The Hilltoppers have made 41 of 53 free throws in the second half of their three games.

- Depth has been a strength for the Hilltoppers early this season. They have nine players averaging double-digit minutes and are averaging 20.7 bench points per game. Last season, WKU averaged 11.8 bench points per game. Its 42 bench points in the season-opening win over Northern Iowa were the program's most since getting 47 points from the reserves against UAB on Feb. 27, 2016.

- Charles Bassey's seven blocks against Memphis on Thursday were the most by a Hilltopper since Teeng Akol blocked seven shots against VCU on Nov. 20, 2011. Bassey became the 19th Division I player since 2010 to have a game with at least 21 points, 14 rebounds and seven blocks. As of Sunday, his 11 total blocks were the most of any player in the country.

LAST GAME AGAINST LOUISVILLE: NOVEMBER 29, 2019

A slow start with missed shots in the paint and several turnovers put WKU behind the eight-ball in a 71-54 loss to No. 2 Louisville at Bridgestone Arena.

WKU started the game 0-for-7 from the field and committed 10 first-half turnovers, while Louisville – set to take over the nation's top ranking – got 25 points from Preseason First Team All-American Jordan Nwora.

Junior guard Taveion Hollingsworth led WKU with 16 points, while Charles Bassey added 14 points and nine rebounds.

BASSEY, McKNIGHT EARN FIRST C-USA WEEKLY AWARDS OF SEASON

DALLAS – Western Kentucky Basketball swept the first round of Conference USA weekly awards as junior center Charles Bassey was named C-USA Player of the Week and freshman guard Dayvion McKnight was named Freshman of the Week, the conference announced Monday.

Bassey was named to the Bad Boy Mowers Crossover Classic All-Tournament Team after averaging a double-double of 15.7 points and 10.0 rebounds, with 3.7 blocks per game, in the three-game, three-day event. All three teams in the event were ranked or receiving votes.

In his first three games back since a leg injury on Dec. 7, 2019, Bassey totaled 11 blocks, two steals and three assists. The Nigeria native shot 54.1% from the field while knocking down one 3-pointer in two of the three contests.

In the win over Memphis, his stat line of 21 points, 14 rebounds and seven blocks was the 19th time since 2010 that a Division I player has reached each of those marks in game. He did so against Memphis standout big man Moussa Cisse, a top-10 recruit. His seven blocks were the most by a Hilltopper since Nov. 20, 2011.

Against #15 West Virginia, who had All-American candidate and tournament MVP forward Derek Culver, Bassey posted 15 points, eight rebounds and two blocks in a limited 19 minutes.

McKnight showed off in his collegiate debut, scoring 21 points while shooting 7 of 10 from the field and 6 of 6 from the charity stripe. He added four rebounds, three assists and three steals in his debut game against Northern Iowa. It was the second-most points ever scored by a Hilltopper freshman in his college debut.

Over the three games in the Bad Boy Mowers Crossover Classic, McKnight averaged 8.3 points, 2.7 rebounds, two assists and 1.3 steals per game against the three ranked/receiving votes teams.

WKU is set to return to the court at RV Louisville on Tuesday evening at 5 p.m. CT.

BASSEY NAMED TO WOODEN AWARD WATCHLIST

Chosen by a preseason poll of national college basketball experts, the list is comprised of 50 student-athletes who are the early front-runners for the most prestigious honors in college basketball, the Wooden Award All American Team and Most Outstanding Player Award.

Bassey serves as the lone representative from Conference USA and is one of 14 student-athletes from non-Power Five conferences. The full watch list can be found here.

Created in 1976, the John R. Wooden Award is given to the nation's best Division I basketball player who has proven to his or her university that he or she meets or exceeds the qualifications of the John R. Wooden Award as set forth by Coach Wooden and the Wooden Award Steering Committee, including making progress towards graduation and maintaining at least a 2.0 cumulative GPA. Previous winners include Larry Bird ('79), Michael Jordan ('84), Tim Duncan ('97) and Kevin Durant ('07).

The players on the list are considered strong candidates for the 2021 John R. Wooden Award Men's Player of the Year presented by Wendy's. Players not chosen to the preseason list are still eligible for the Wooden Award™ midseason list, late season list, and the National Ballot. The National Ballot consists of 15 top players who have proven to their universities that they meet or exceed the qualifications of the Wooden Award. Nearly 1,000 voters will rank in order 10 of those 15 players when voting opens prior to the NCAA Tournament and will allow voters to take into consideration performance during early round games. The Wooden Award All American Team™ will be announced the week of the "Elite Eight" round of the NCAA Tournament. The winner of the 2020 John R. Wooden Award will be presented by Wendy's following the NCAA Tournament in April.

The honor comes alongside several preseason awards and watch lists for the center including the Naismith Trophy Player of the year Watch List, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award Watch List and Lindy's Spots Magazine Preseason Second-Team All-American honors.

Through the Hilltoppers' first three games of the season, the Nigeria native is averaging 15.7 points, 10.0 rebounds and 3.7 blocks in 25.3 minutes of action. He is shooting 54.1% from the field and has netted two 3-pointers. Bassey was named Conference USA's Player of the Week after his performance against Northern Iowa, Memphis and #15 West Virginia in the Bad Boy Mowers Crossover Classic.

WKU is set to play at Louisville on Tuesday evening. The game will tip at 5 p.m. CT and be broadcast on ACC Network.

HILLTOPPERS FALL TO CARDINALS IN LONE GAME IN LOUISVILLE BUBBLE

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Turnovers plagued WKU Hilltopper Basketball in a 75-54 loss at Louisville on Tuesday night.

The Hilltoppers (2-2) turned the ball over 21 times, including five times in the first three minutes of the second half. That allowed a five-point halftime deficit to turn into a Louisville lead as large as 23 in the final seconds.

"It wasn't the same team I watched in three games out in South Dakota," WKU head coach Rick Stansbury said. "Now for what reasons, I have no idea. Except I know this: you can't beat good teams on the road turning the basketball over. We turned that basketball over five straight times coming out of the locker room. I don't know if I've ever seen a stat with seven assists and 21 turnovers. I know it was 2 to 12 in the second half. That's a bad stat. You're not going to beat any good team turning the ball over."

WKU had two 8-0 runs in the first half and led 25-17 at the 9:01 mark after a 3-pointer by redshirt junior guard Luke Frampton.

But Louisville went on a 10-0 run to go back up 29-25 and pushed it to 34-29 at the break.

The Hilltoppers lost several straight possessions to turnovers early in the second half, and after getting back within 45-41 on a basket by freshman guard Dayvion McKnight, allowed Louisville to go on a 12-0 run to pull away.

Senior guard Taveion Hollingsworth led WKU with 19 points, while junior center Charles Bassey added 13 points, 15 rebounds and five blocks.

Dre Davis paced Louisville (4-0) with 21 points on 7-of-9 shooting. The Cardinals shot 56% in the second half and scored 21 points off WKU's turnovers.

WKU is leaving the Louisville bubble and returning to Bowling Green on Tuesday night.

The Hilltoppers lost their game against Prairie View A&M on Thursday in Louisville because of COVID-19 issues with the Prairie View program.

WKU is actively working to adjust its non-conference schedule and will share updates as soon as they're available.

TOP STORYLINES

- WKU's game against Mississippi Valley State in the 2012 NCAA Tournament was one to remember. Playing in front of President Barack Obama and British Prime Minister David Cameron, the Hilltoppers rallied from a 16-point deficit with 4:51 left to win 59-58. It was the largest comeback with less than five minutes left in the NCAA Tournament at the time.
- Dec. 6 will be the latest on the calendar that WKU has played its first home game since hosting Belmont on Dec. 10 in the 1994 home opener. The Hilltoppers have won 14 of their last 16 home openers and are 82-19 all-time in the season's first home game.
- As of Friday night, WKU's strength of schedule was ranked 13th by Ken Pomeroy, and 20th by Sagarin Ratings. The Hilltoppers' first four opponents as ranked by KenPom: Northern Iowa (85), Memphis (47), West Virginia (8) and Louisville (21).

- As of Friday, Charles Bassey leads the nation with 16 total blocks and ranks third with 4.0 blocks per game. He's also fourth in total rebounds (45). Only 30 programs in the nation have more blocks as a team than Bassey by himself.
- Charles Bassey's seven blocks against Memphis on Nov. 26 were the most by a Hilltopper since Teeng Akol blocked seven shots against VCU on Nov. 20, 2011. Bassey became the 19th Division I player since 2010 to have a game with at least 21 points, 14 rebounds and seven blocks.

HILLTOPPERS RUN PAST MISSISSIPPI VALLEY STATE 96-69 IN HOME OPENER

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball got everyone involved and dominated with its size to complete a 96-69 victory over Mississippi Valley State in Sunday's home opener at E.A. Diddle Arena.

Twelve of the 14 Hilltoppers who played scored, while WKU (3-2) outrebounded the Delta Devils 52-21 and outscored them 48-20 in the paint.

"It's good just to get a game and get them in here," WKU head coach Rick Stansbury said. "Mississippi Valley, in the first half, made some shots. We scrambled around, our guards, they made some 3s off the press. I think they had eight at the end of the first half. Quit doing that the second half, we didn't press as much and they didn't make as many 3s. We had 21 offensive rebounds, that's a plus. We had 21 assists, that's a plus... We had a chance to play a lot of people and that's always good. We haven't had a game like that all year long."

Senior guard Taveion Hollingsworth led WKU with 16 points, while junior forward Kevin Osawe chipped in 15 points and seven rebounds in 14 minutes off the bench. The reserves accounted for 50 of the Hilltoppers' points.

Junior center Charles Bassey finished with 13 points, 11 rebounds and four blocks, and sophomore guard Jordan Rawls tallied 12 points, five rebounds and three assists.

Senior guard Josh Anderson had nine points and four steals, while freshman guard Dayvion McKnight filled the stat sheet with six points, nine rebounds and seven assists.

"Sharing the ball more," Rawls said. "I think we had 12 people score, a lot of guys did a lot of different things. Getting everyone involved, that was one of our emphases."

WKU trailed only once at 3-2 and built a 45-33 advantage at the break.

MVSU (0-5) got within nine at 49-40 early in the second half, but the Tops shot 51.4% after halftime as they got a deep bench involved.

WKU racked up 21 assists on 33 baskets and made 22 of 31 free throws. The Hilltoppers had 21 offensive rebounds and 19 second-chance points.

"We've got a lot of guys on the team that can perform on any given night," Osawe said. "I didn't know I was going to perform the way I did, I just came out with energy like I do every game. It just so happened to be me that performed."

Kam'Ron Cunningham led the Delta Devils with 23 points.

The Hilltoppers will stay at home to host Gardner-Webb at 7 p.m. CT Thursday at Diddle Arena in a game announced Sunday morning. It will air on ESPN+ and locally on WKU PBS.

HILLTOPPERS OUTLAST HOT-SHOOTING GARDNER-WEBB, 86-84

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball got all it could handle from the hot shooting of Gardner-Webb on Thursday night, but rode a career night from Charles Bassey, its own clutch shooting and crisp ball-handling to an 86-84 victory at E.A. Diddle Arena.

Gardner-Webb made 12 of 19 3-pointers in its season debut, but that was overshadowed by a career-high 29 points and 14 rebounds from the junior center Bassey.

"I just go into every game and play hard," Bassey said. "It doesn't matter how many points I score, how many rebounds I get, how many blocked shots I get, I just go in there and play hard. Playing hard, you don't know, you're just going to get points like that. I just go in every game, it's just my mindset, playing hard every possession and every time I'm on the floor."

Joining Bassey in double figures were senior guard Josh Anderson and redshirt junior guard Luke Frampton. Anderson scored 16 points, including 12 in the second half, while Frampton buried all five of his 3-point attempts for his 15 points.

WKU (4-2) handed out 20 assists and committed just four turnovers.

Gardner-Webb (0-1) made 8 of 12 3s in the first half and led 43-40 at the break.

The Hilltoppers finally surged back ahead with a 20-5 run, during which Anderson had 11 points. His steal and dunk made it 65-53 with 11:43 to play.

Gardner-Webb erased WKU's lead in less than two minutes and pulled back in front on a 3 by Lance Terry with 7:02 to go that made it 72-69.

Frampton knocked down a tying 3 coming out of the media timeout, and sophomore guard Jordan Rawls followed with another 3-pointer.

"I was taking the shots I was given," Frampton said. "I'm happy it came out how it did. I've been shooting the ball pretty poorly the last couple games, I'm definitely happy with the performance tonight, especially getting a win. That's all that really matters to me. Like CB, doesn't matter how many points, rebounds, whatever, as long as we get a win, that's all that matters."

WKU never trailed again, but it wasn't easy. After Bassey made one free throw to make it 86-84, Gardner-Webb's Jaheam Cornwall missed the winning 3 in the final seconds.

Jacob Falko paced the Runnin' Bulldogs with 19 points.

"We now know why they were available to schedule a game, why nobody else had scheduled them yet," WKU head coach Rick Stansbury said. "It's very obvious, they're a very good team. There were a couple guys for them that we didn't know anything about, hadn't seen them. I think it was 0 and 3, Terry and Falko. They had 34 points between them and those two guys were the difference in the game... Probably the key stat was that we had 20 assists, four turnovers.

That helped survive some of the things we didn't do as well. ... That's one of the games you'll look back on this time of year and look back on it late in the year, and say that's a good quality win, without us being at our best."

The Hilltoppers continue their three-game homestand Sunday against Rhode Island at 11 a.m. CT. The game will air on CBS Sports Network.

TOP STORYLINES

- As of Friday, WKU was one of only 43 programs in the nation to have played at least six games so far this season. That represents just 12% of Division I teams.
- As of Friday, Charles Bassey leads the nation with 23 total blocks and 70 total rebounds. He also ranks second in double-doubles (4), fourth in blocks per game (3.83), seventh in total field goals made (44), eighth in rebounds per game (11.7) and 11th in defensive rebounds per game (8.7). Only 30 programs in the nation have more blocks as a team than Bassey by himself.

- As a team, WKU ranks 10th nationally in total blocks (29), 14th in total rebounds (239), 20th in free throws made (93) and 30th in free-throw attempts (124).
- In the last two games, WKU has 41 total assists against just 18 turnovers. It's the first time the Hilltoppers have had 20-plus assists in back-to-back games since the 2017-18 season.
- WKU is averaging 25.7 bench points per game. Last season, WKU averaged 11.8 bench points per game. Its 50 bench points in Sunday's win over Mississippi Valley State were the program's most since getting 53 points from the reserves against North Texas on Jan. 16, 2016.
- The Hilltoppers are tied for second in the country with 27 dunks this season. Charles Bassey leads the nation with 19 dunks this year – six more than the next closest player, Purdue's Zach Edey.

LAST GAME AGAINST RHODE ISLAND: DECEMBER 21, 2019

WKU showed plenty of fight at Rhode Island, rallying to force overtime before falling 86-82 in a road thriller.

WKU redshirt junior forward Carson Williams' fourth 3-pointer sent the game to overtime, but Rhode Island was able to capitalize on offensive rebounds and costly Hilltopper turnovers to get the victory.

Williams scored a game-high 26 points on 9-of-13 shooting, including a 4-for-4 performance from 3-point range. He also tied his career high with 14 rebounds and blocked three shots.

His final 3-pointer to send the game to overtime capped a late surge in regulation by WKU, which trailed 70-61 with 4:46 to play.

TOPS OUTLAST RHODE ISLAND 68-65 FOR THIRD STRAIGHT WIN

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball's matchup with Rhode Island lived up to its billing Sunday, as the Hilltoppers pulled out a 68-65 win at E.A. Diddle Arena.

The Hilltoppers (5-2) led the game for 34 minutes, but Rhode Island stayed within striking distance nearly the entire way.

The Rams (3-4) pulled within one multiple times in the final four minutes. Each time, WKU had an answer and kept them at bay for their third straight home victory.

"We knew it was going to be a difficult game for a lot of reasons," WKU head coach Rick Stansbury said. "First off, Rhode Island, they're just a really good basketball team. Number two, it's 11 a.m. It's not like it's 11 a.m., Diddle Arena full of people and emotion, so I knew that was going to be a challenge. I thought the key to the game would be who could come out and impose their will on the other team. Who could come out and have the most energy. I thought our guys did that."

WKU turned in a stout defensive performance, holding Rhode Island to 42.1% shooting from the field – including 36.7% in the first half. The Rams, like WKU, make a living at the free-throw line, but they netted just 11 of 15 on Sunday to the Hilltoppers' 21 of 26.

"Coach always preaches to get to the free-throw line so we just wanted to be super aggressive to just get to the free throw line as much as possible," Rawls said.

Senior guard Josh Anderson paced WKU with 15 points and made both of his 3-point attempts.

Senior guard Taveion Hollingsworth tallied 14 points, seven rebounds, four steals and three assists, and junior center Charles Bassey was a menace inside again with 13 points, nine rebounds, five blocks and two assists.

Sophomore guard Jordan Rawls chipped in 11 points off the bench.

WKU opened the game with a 9-0 run, but Rhode Island rallied to lead by two at 24-22.

The Tops went on an 11-3 run over the final four minutes of the half to lead 33-27 at the break.

WKU used another 9-0 run early in the second half to push the lead to double digits until the Rams responded with an 11-2 burst.

That trimmed their deficit to just one at 52-51, but Rawls countered with an alley-oop dunk to Bassey.

That was one of many big-time responses from the Hilltoppers. With the lead down to one again, Anderson sank his second 3 with 3:34 remaining to make it 58-54.

After Rhode Island tied the game with 51 seconds to play, Bassey put WKU in front for good on a tip-in putback with 10 seconds remaining.

Hollingsworth made two free throws with four seconds left to make it 68-65, and Rhode Island's Fatts Russell missed the front end of a 1-and-1 after WKU opted to foul.

"It's been big, just how we can close out games," Anderson said. "Just the depth that we have, when the game has three minutes, two minutes left, whether the game is close or not, we've got players who can come in and make plays. Whether it's the starting five or not, so I feel like that's big for our team."

Russell had 14 points for the Rams, while D.J. Johnson added 16 off the bench.

The Hilltoppers next scheduled game is at home against Tennessee Tech at 6 p.m. CT Dec. 22. The program is looking to fill its last non-conference vacancy before then, however.

HILLTOPPERS ADD ROAD GAME AT ALABAMA ON SATURDAY

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball has filled its final non-conference vacancy with a road game at Alabama this Saturday.

The Hilltoppers (5-2) will face the Crimson Tide at 1 p.m. CT Saturday at Coleman Coliseum in Tuscaloosa, Ala. The game will stream online on SEC Network+.

WKU had two openings on its schedule after a pair of cancellations in Louisville's bubble event. The Tops filled the first spot with a home game against Gardner-Webb, which they won 86-84 last week.

This will be just the third meeting ever between WKU and Alabama, and the first in over three decades. The Hilltoppers have lost each of the first two neutral-site matchups – a 1989 clash in Puerto Rico and a 1955 game in Louisville.

The Crimson Tide is extremely familiar to WKU head coach Rick Stansbury, however.

As head coach at Mississippi State for 14 years, the Bulldogs and Alabama were fierce SEC rivals. Stansbury is 16-14 in his career against the Crimson Tide.

Alabama is 3-2 this season and ranked 51st by Ken Pomeroy after a neutral-site loss to Clemson on Saturday. The squad owns wins over Providence, UNLV and Jacksonville State.

Following Saturday's game in Tuscaloosa, the Hilltoppers are slated to complete non-conference play at home against Tennessee Tech on Dec. 22.

WKU has won three straight with its only losses against West Virginia in South Dakota and at Louisville. Both programs are now ranked in the top 25.

CAREER GAME EARNS BASSEY C-USA PLAYER OF THE WEEK

DALLAS – Western Kentucky Basketball center Charles Bassey's career performance against Gardner-Webb, combined with a solid game against Rhode Island, earned him his second Conference USA Player of the Week award, the league announced Monday.

Bassey scored a career-high 29 points and grabbed 14 boards, recording his fourth double-double of the season on Thursday against Gardner-Webb. He shot 13 of 19 from the field and had three blocks.

Against the Rhode Island Rams on Sunday, the junior was just shy of another double-double with 13 points and nine rebounds. The Nigeria native blocked five shots, adding to his running season total of 28 blocks. It was his third game this year with at least five blocks.

Between the two contests, Bassey averaged 21.5 points, 11.5 rebounds and four blocks per game while shooting 58.6% from the floor and netting 8 of 11 free throws.

As of Monday morning, Bassey leads the nation in blocks per game (4.0), total blocks (28), total rebounds (79) and total dunks (21). In Conference USA, he leads the league in total rebounds, rebounds per game (11.3), total blocks, blocks per game and defensive rebounds (58).

This is Bassey's second Player of the Week award this season and third of his career. In his freshman season, he won 10 of the 17 Freshman of the Week awards.

TOP STORYLINES

- WKU is 28-48 all-time against the current SEC membership, but has won three of the last four with two victories over Arkansas and one over Ole Miss. WKU head coach Rick Stansbury, who was the head coach at Mississippi State for 14 years, is 146-112 against the current SEC membership.
- One of the top memories of Stansbury's career came at Alabama. In the 2004 regular-season finale, his Mississippi State squad rallied from a 18-point deficit in the second half to defeat the Crimson Tide in overtime and claim the outright SEC title. Stansbury was named SEC Coach of the Year that season.

- Since the start of the 2017-18 season, WKU is 8-6 against Power Five competition.
- As of Thursday, WKU was one of only 72 programs in the nation to have played at least seven games so far this season. That represents just 20% of Division I teams.
- As of Thursday, Charles Bassey leads the nation in total blocks (28) and blocks per game (4.0). He also ranks third in double-doubles (4) and total rebounds (79), ninth in defensive rebounds per game (8.3), 10th in total rebounds per game (11.3) and 20th in total field goals (20). Only 41 programs in the nation have more blocks as a team than Bassey by himself.
- The Hilltoppers are second in the country with 31 dunks this season. Charles Bassey leads the nation with 21 dunks this year – five more than the next closest player, Illinois' Kofi Cockburn.

LAST GAME AGAINST ALABAMA: NOVEMBER 24, 1989

WKU got 20 points from Roland Shelton and 16 points and 13 rebounds from Anthony Smith, but it wasn't enough to knock off nationally ranked Alabama in the 1989-90 season opener.

Alabama made 29 of 37 free throws to control the game and hold off the Hilltoppers' rally attempt in the second half.

WKU outrebounded the Crimson Tide by 10, but also committed 19 turnovers.

HILLTOPPERS TAKE DOWN ALABAMA 73-71 FOR SEC ROAD WIN

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball had to overcome foul trouble and a deficit in the final minutes, but the Hilltoppers made clutch plays to pull out a 73-71 road victory at Alabama on Saturday.

Alabama only led for five minutes, but the Crimson Tide managed to build a 70-67 lead with 2:10 to go.

WKU sophomore guard Jordan Rawls responded with four straight free throws, and junior center Charles Bassey broke a 71-71 stalemate with the winning basket on a goaltend with 26 seconds to play.

"When you go on the road and win, you've got to have some toughness and some grit and some togetherness about you," WKU head coach Rick Stansbury said. "That was going to be the difference in that game. At halftime, it was basically a tie game, we were up one. No longer is it going to be a 40-minute game, it's a 20-minute game. It's that team that came out of that locker room and imposed their will. Again, it's not easy to impose your will on the road. It's not easy. We only had to do it for 20 more minutes... Great, gusty tough effort. Great team effort. Like I said, guys came off that bench and added to."

Bassey finished with 27 points and 12 rebounds — as well as his second game-winning basket in as many games — while Rawls added a career-high 20 points off the bench.

The victory improves WKU to 9-6 against Power Five competition since 2017-18, as well as 4-1 in its last five games against SEC opponents.

"We knew coming here was going to be tough," Bassey said. "We knew it wasn't going to be easy, but we kept our cool and we just played the game from the first half through second half and got the win. Coach said, there's no game this year that's going to be easy. Every game is going to be tough so we've just got to be ready and play."

The Hilltoppers' backcourt was hampered by foul trouble, with senior guards Taveion Hollingsworth and Kenny Cooper playing just 24 combined minutes between them.

They played just seven total minutes in the first half, but Rawls stepped up with the last two baskets of the half, including a putback with 12 seconds left to put the Hilltoppers in front 33-32 at the break.

WKU (6-2) built its largest lead of the second half at 67-62 with 5:30 left on a bucket by Bassey, but Alabama (4-3) went on an 8-0 run and led 70-67 on a putback by Herbert Jones with 2:10 remaining.

Rawls calmly drew two fouls and sank four free throws to put WKU back in front, and after one free throw by Alabama, Bassey pulled down an offensive rebound on a missed shot by senior guard Josh Anderson, went back up and got the basket on a goaltend.

The Crimson Tide couldn't score on the other end, and the Hilltoppers were able to run out the clock to secure the victory.

"I'm just trying to be aggressive when I come off the bench, really that's all," Rawls said. "Get in the lane, carry it for other people, draw fouls, and I think I did that pretty well tonight."

WKU held Alabama to 36.7% shooting and forced 19 turnovers, which it turned into 21 points.

The Hilltoppers also outrebounded the Tide 38-35 and won the points in the paint 42-28.

Anderson added six points to WKU's cause. Freshman guard Dayvion McKnight had four points, six assists and five rebounds.

Jones paced Alabama with 16 points.

The Hilltoppers will finish non-conference play at home against Tennessee Tech at 6 p.m. CT Tuesday at E.A. Diddle Arena. The game will air on ESPNU.

WKU CONCLUDES NON-CONFERENCE PLAY WITH 88-68 VICTORY OVER TENNESSEE TECH

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball utilized a deep bench Tuesday against Tennessee Tech, rolling to an 88-68 victory in the non-conference finale at E.A. Diddle Arena.

The win was the fifth straight for WKU (7-2), which is undefeated at home and off to its best start through nine games since the 2012-13 season.

“Coach had told us that we’ll have a couple days off and he didn’t want us to pack our minds with our bags,” senior guard Taveion Hollingsworth said. “We just tried to stay focused for the game and come out with energy. Now everybody gets to go home and be with their family for a couple days.”

The Hilltoppers were without junior center Charles Bassey, who missed the game because of back spasms stemming from an elbow in the back in Saturday’s win at Alabama.

On top of that, WKU was hampered by foul trouble in the post for much of the first half, but the Tops still managed to outrebound Tennessee Tech 41-32.

WKU scored 24 points off the Golden Eagles’ 15 turnovers, racked up 18 assists against nine turnovers and made 19 of 22 free throws.

The Hilltoppers also netted 9 of 24 3-pointers, sparked by redshirt junior guard Luke Frampton’s 6-of-9 display from long range. Frampton finished with a game-high 22 points.

“I really just kind of get into a zone,” Frampton said. “You don’t know what’s going on around you, but anytime you shoot it, it feel like it’s going into the ocean. And I have that confidence anyway, anytime I shoot it, it feels like it’s going in. Looking down and seeing I had 22, it was kind of shocking. Like Taveion said, not many people think I would go off like this, just because we have so many weapons. With CB being out, a lot of people had to step up tonight. I’m happy with the win.”

Senior guard Josh Anderson added 14 points, six rebounds and four assists, while sophomore guard Jordan Rawls chipped in 12 points. Hollingsworth tallied 10 points, seven rebounds and three assists.

WKU raced out to a 22-6 lead at the 12:48 mark on a basket by Rawls, but then scored just six points over the next nine minutes.

Senior guard Kenny Cooper made a 3-pointer at the buzzer to give the Hilltoppers a 36-25 halftime advantage.

They steadily built the lead to 24 late in the game, relying on the hot shooting of Frampton and a host of contributors off the bench. WKU got 32 total points from its reserves.

“What I’ve learned is, you never know who’s up next,” Hollingsworth said. “People just come out and play, you never know who’s going to go off that night. I guarantee, nobody knew Luke was going to do that. We’ve got different weapons, every night it’s somebody new, and that’s what’s good about us.”

Jr. Clay paced Tennessee Tech (0-9) with 15 points.

The Hilltoppers are off until after the holidays, when they’ll open Conference USA with a pair of back-to-back road games at Charlotte. The first of those games is set for 3 p.m. CT Friday, Jan. 1.

The last time a Hilltopper netted six shots from long range was Camron Justice on Nov. 25, 2019, against Fordham in the U.S. Virgin Islands Paradise Jam.

Frampton is 12th in Conference USA in 3-pointers made with 20 over WKU's nine non-conference games. This is the redshirt junior's first award of the season and WKU's fourth Player of the Week award in just five weeks of competition. Frampton is the third Hilltopper to be recognized this season as Dayvion McKnight and Charles Bassey have also won weekly awards.

WKU is slated to enter conference action on Friday with a weekend road trip to Charlotte.
